Hard-core “apple addicts” get their fix at this Finger Lakes orchard’s Greenmarket stall, where the “delicious apples” in the crisp-weather months rotate to “fabulous” apricots, plums, peaches and other stone fruits in summer, all at “very fair prices” still, it may be most beloved for its “best-on-the-planet” juices, ciders and nectars (which are also available via Fresh Direct, Fairway, Whole Foods and other markets).
